

Discovery Health Record Solutions completes acquisition of Elevate, LLC of Kansas City

December 1, 2010 – Silverhawk Capital Partners portfolio company Discovery Health Record Solutions recently completed the acquisition of Elevate, LLC a medical record release of information and document management services company based in Kansas City serving healthcare providers primarily in Western Missouri and Kansas.

Elevate founded in 2002, provides medical record request fulfillment services and document management services, including scanning, records storage and hosting. Co-founder Sean West remarked that, “Discovery has the scale, technology, and financial strength necessary to allow us to better serve new and existing customers, and deliver our innovative document management services to their large customer base.” We are pleased to be joining one of the nation’s premier ROI (release of information) companies.

“This acquisition both expands the company’s market reach in the Midwest, and also adds essential document management capabilities and expertise to support our growth initiatives,” commented Discovery’s CEO and President Doug Hollman, “and I’m pleased that Sean will be joining TeamDiscovery to head our Document Management Services business as a Vice President.”

The completion of this acquisition marks Discovery’s fourth during calendar year 2010 as it executes its growth strategy.
