“Silverhawk Capital Partners portfolio company acquires In-Home Care of Jacksonville, FL October 3, 2013” Silverhawk Capital Partners (“Silverhawk”), is pleased to announce that its portfolio company American In-Home Care, LLC (“AIHC”) has completed the acquisition of In-Home Care of Jacksonville, FL a regional leader in the rapidly growing independent living services industry.

In-Home Care, which serves the greater Jacksonville metropolitan area, including Jacksonville Beach and Ponte Vedra, marks AIHC’s second acquisition in the Florida market. This process includes a background check and review of current licensing requirements, and inspection of their liability insurance, to provide the company’s clients with control, choice, and peace of mind when choosing their caregiver.

“We are pleased that the team at In-Home Care will be joining forces with American In-Home Care, and about expanding our presence in Florida and the Jacksonville area,” commented Doug Hollman CEO and President of AIHC, “we are confident that they will be a good compliment to our recently completed acquisition of American Home Companion of Orlando, which also serves this market.” In-Home Care will be managed by AIHC COO Jim Marks who is also the President of the Private Care Association, Inc., a professional association of similar companies that are dedicated to the concept of aging in place.
